

ETHICAL POLICY

It is FREIGHT MASTERS LLC's policy and determination to provide excellent services to highest ethical standards.

All FREIGHT MASTERS LLC employees and sub-contractors are required to adhere to the following ethical policy principles, to which the company is committed:

- Conduct in a manner consistent with ethical principles
 - Upholding laws and regulations applicable to the country we operate in
 - Loyalty to FREIGHT MASTERS LLC and its customers and avoidance of conflict of interest or situations of unlawful profit or benefit to the individual or family or friends
 - Refusal to offer or accept money, gifts, excessive hospitality, favours or other things of value
 - Maintaining confidentiality of all matters relating to your employment, company business, sub-contractor business and client business
 - Refraining from using insider knowledge to further aims of personal enrichment or rival business
- Employees who contravene these ethical principles will face disciplinary action.

Sub-contractors who compromise FREIGHT MASTERS LLC ethical standards will face exclusion from FREIGHT MASTERS LLC list of approved suppliers.
